Mission

The mission of the ISU educator preparation program is to prepare teachers and school leaders to provide excellent experiences leading to the skillful engagement of students, colleagues, and communities and will enrich and be enriched by those experiences provided by families not occur in isolation. It exists in synergy with the education provided by families. Teachers and school leaders.

Vision

At Iowa State University, our educator preparation community of professional educators and students believe:

Belief Statements

The conceptual framework of the University Educator Preparation Program at Iowa State University.